ORDER:

The Government of India, Ministry of Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation have launched National Urban Livelihood Mission (NULM) re-structuring the SJSRY which has come into effect with effect from 01.04.2014. Employment through Skills Training and Placement (EST&P) programme is one of the major component of NULM. This programme will provide Skills Training for the Urban Poor to enable them to get salaried jobs in the private sector through Skill Training Providers. The EST&P programme intends to fill up the gap between the demand and availability of local skills by providing skill training programmes as required by the market. Under this programme Skill Training Providers (STPs) empanelled by National Skill Development Corporation / National Skill Development Authority have been shortlisted and approved to take up the skilling and placement of the youth.

2. The Mission Director, MEPMA in the reference 2nd read above, has reported that the State has to take up training for the Urban Poor Youth in 32 NULM towns and provide placement by the STPs and Government have allocated Rs.33.79 Crores for this purpose. The MD, has further informed that as per the Operational Guidelines issued by Government of India, the State Urban Livelihood Mission may hire services of external professional agencies, Universities, academic institutes etc, for appraisal, evaluation and monitoring of Skilling programme.

3. The Mission Director, MEPMA has also informed that it would be appropriate for the District administration to select local level NGOs, external professional agencies, and academic institutions to take up monitoring of the programme in the ULBs as the courses will be spread over in the Municipalities.

4. The Mission Director, MEPMA has therefore proposed to constitute the District Level Monitoring Committee for supervision of the skilling programme. This monitoring committee shall comprise maximum of three members from external professional agencies, academic institutions / reputed NGOs under the District Collector concerned. She has also requested to issue necessary orders permitting the District Collectors to engage the services of the external professional agencies, academic institutions / reputed NGOs for effective supervision and monitoring in successful implementation of EST&P programme.

5. The Government after careful consideration hereby accord permission to the District Collectors for constituting the District Level Monitoring Committee comprising of external professional agencies, academic institutions/reputed NGOs under District Collector. The functions of the committee are as listed below:

1. The committee shall closely monitor the EST&P programme in the ULBs by visiting the training centers. They shall visit the training centers during the training period and verify the biometric attendance.
2. They shall also visit at the time of assessment.
3. They shall take up placement verification and post placement verification.
4. The committee shall submit periodical reports to MD MEPMA.

5. The expenditure involved for study and preparation of reports on the above said programme may be met from A&OE component of NULM.

6. The Mission Director, MEPMA, Hyderabad and the District Collectors shall take further necessary action in the matter.
